

OCIO Search Service

Why RFP?

- 1 Fees
- 2 Explore OCIO
- 3 Asset growth
- 4 Competition
- 5 Performance
- 6 Fresh ideas
- 7 New services
- 8 Relationship change
- 9 Alternatives expertise

Is Your Organization Exploring OCIO Solutions?

To reduce internal staffing needs.

To deepen alternatives resources.

To improve performance.

OCIO providers are more complex to assess and require specialized skills in investment manager evaluation.

Consider engaging a dedicated search firm to assist you.

The Alpha Capital Advantage

Independent. Our only institutional services are searches.

Experience as portfolio managers and consultants.

~Four decades of cumulative experience.

Overview of The Alpha Search Process

Target: 2 weeks

Develop criteria specific to your organization's needs.

Design RFP to isolate key criteria for firm evaluation.

Identify appropriate candidates and deliver RFP.

Target: 6 to 8 weeks

Analyze responses from RFP candidates across key dimensions based on custom RFP criteria.

Evaluate and select finalists using this in depth analysis.

Target: 1 week

Coordinate and run finals presentations with chosen candidates.

Recommend the top candidate for approval.

Select a new OCIO.

For more information: atabke@alphacapitalmgmt.com

www.alphacapitalmgmt.com

For financial professional use only.

OCIO Search Service

Meet Our Team

Brad Alford, CFA,
Principal

Bradley H. Alford, CFA Principal, Chief Investment Officer

Brad founded Alpha Capital Management in July 2006 and serves as the Chief Investment Officer of Alpha Capital. He has over twenty-seven years of investment management experience, and he oversees the entire portfolio management process, including traditional asset class manager due diligence and selection as well as portfolio construction and review. He also heads the firm's Consultant Search Service, which designs and runs investment consultant and OCIO searches for institutions.

Prior to founding Alpha Capital Management in July 2006, he was a Managing Director at Atlantic Trust from 2002 to 2006, where he worked directly with some of the firm's largest clients. From 2000 to 2002, Brad served as the Director of Investment Advisory Services at MyCFO, a firm focused on managing assets for ultra-high-net-worth clients. From 1995 to 2000, Brad was the Managing Director of the investment division for the $2 billion Duke Endowment. At Duke, he expanded the alternative asset portfolio from $100 million to more than $1 billion. From 1989 to 1995, Brad was the Director of Endowment Investments for the Emory University Endowment, with assets in excess of $4 billion.

Brad also founded and built an internet company, IPO Lockup.com. IPO Lockup.com was the first website to track and analyze the effects of lockup expirations on initial public offerings (IPOs). The website's information was featured each Sunday in the New York Times, and CNBC named IPO Lockup.com one of the "Cool Websites" for 1999. Brad sold IPO Lockup.com in 2000.

In 2012, he was selected by Institutional Investor magazine as a "Rising Star of Mutual Funds." He has been quoted extensively in the financial press, including the Wall Street Journal, Barron's, Fortune, and the New York Times. He has also made multiple appearances on CNBC, Bloomberg TV, and Fox Business Network.

He holds a BS in Corporate Finance and an MBA from the University of Alabama. In addition, Brad completed the intensive Senior Investment Manager Program at Princeton University. He is a CFA charterholder and is a member of the CFA Institute and the Atlanta Society of Finance and Investment Professionals. He serves on the Finance and Investment Committees of St. Martin's Episcopal School and of the Atlanta Ronald McDonald House Charities.

Anna Dunn Tabke, CFA, CAIA Principal

Anna Dunn Tabke,
CFA, CAIA, Principal

Anna joined Alpha Capital Management in 2012 as the Director of Research and is a Principal of the firm. She has more than ten years of investment experience. Through Consultant Search Services, she matches institutions with investment consultants or outsourced CIO (OCIO) firms to build strong, long-term, mutually beneficial relationships. She also assists family offices in selecting investment advisors.

Prior to joining Alpha Capital Management, Anna was an associate with Mercer Investments from 2010 to 2012, where she partnered with senior consultants to provide a full range of investment consulting services to institutional clients and advised over $9 billion in assets. She developed intellectual capital on investment opportunities in addition to portfolio structuring, asset allocation modeling, and investment manager analysis for client portfolios. Anna began her career as an investment consultant at Rogerscasey, where she worked from 2007 to 2010 and focused on corporate, not-for-profit, and endowment clients.

Anna holds a BA in Economics from Princeton University. She is a CFA charterholder and is a member of the CFA Institute and the Atlanta Society of Finance and Investment Professionals. She has contributed to Financial IQ, spoken at investment-focused conferences, appeared on Fox Business Network, and been quoted in financial publications such as Bloomberg, Fund Fire, Investment News, The Street, and US News & World Report. She is also a CAIA (Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst) charterholder and a member of the CAIA Association as well as a founding Chapter Executive for the CAIA Atlanta Chapter.

For more information: atabke@alphacapitalmgmt.com

www.alphacapitalmgmt.com